Every test taker is required to sign a Certifying Statement each time they take the Law School Admission Test (LSAT). By signing this statement, you are helping the Law School Admission Council (LSAC), the creators of the LSAT, continue to ensure the integrity and security of the exam for all test takers. Please make sure you read the entire statement below, mark your agreement, and sign and date it.

CERTIFYING STATEMENT

I certify that I am the candidate whose name appears on this answer sheet and that I am here to take the LSAT for the sole purpose of being considered for admission to law school. I further certify that I will neither assist nor receive assistance from any other candidate, and I agree that after I take the exam, I will not discuss or share with anyone any information about the questions, answer choices, or other content appearing on this LSAT (whether orally, in writing, on the Internet, or through any other means or media), nor will I assist anyone or any entity in doing so.

I certify that I have read and understand the above paragraph. I agree to be bound by all LSAC policies concerning the LSAT.
