Tables:

Two law schools per 8ft. table – each representative will have a 4ft. area to display their banner, materials, etc. Plugs will not be accessible from most of the tables.

Food:

There will be a breakroom with beverages and snacks available for law school representatives. We will also be hosting a reception at the conclusion of the event from 1 – 2 pm with drinks and light appetizers to kick off the recruitment season!

Transportation/Parking:

Suffolk Law does not have any on campus parking, so we encourage representatives and attendees to use public transportation. You can find directions here. Should you decide to drive, there are local area parking garages listed here.

Hotels:

Suffolk University has preferred rates at a number of Boston area hotels. You can find more information here.

Advertising:

While we are advertising the event to prospective students throughout the Boston and New England area, I encourage each school attending to also let prospective students know that they will be attending the Boston Law Fair and encourage them to attend. Prospective students can RSVP to attend here.

If you have any questions leading up to the fair, please feel free to reach out to me directly!
