LSAT PREP AND APPLICATION RESOURCES

OFFICIAL LSAT PREP

The Law School Admission Council, the developers of the LSAT, recognizes your need for affordable test preparation resources that can help you improve your skills and feel more confident on test day.

Sign up for a LawHub account at LSAC.org to receive free access to two full Official LSAT PrepTests®, two tests in the LSAT-Flex format, and a writing sample practice prompt. You'll also get unlimited practice with the authentic test interface. When you're ready to build test skills with even more practice, Official LSAT Prep Plus® provides one-year access to 70+ full Official LSAT PrepTests as well as access to exclusive educational events.

LSAC has also worked extensively with Khan Academy, a leader in world-class online education, to develop the first comprehensive, free, online LSAT prep platform. All aspiring law students should have access to free, personalized LSAT prep using official LSAT questions. Available at KhanAcademy.org/lsat, this groundbreaking program will help you prepare, practice, and build the skills you need to succeed on the LSAT, in law school, and in the legal profession.

Discover Law at LSAC.org

See how a legal education can open the door to a wide range of career opportunities.

Applying to law school requires planning. LSAC is here to guide you every step of the way as you prepare, apply, and decide where you want to go to law school.

LSAC LAW SCHOOL FORUMS

You want to find the law school that best fits with your needs and you likely have many questions. LSAC Law School Forums make it easy for you to research law schools and the admission process. LSAC Forums offer the opportunity to network with representatives from many ABA-approved law schools, participate in educational workshops, and learn more about your important next steps.

The list of workshops includes:

- About the LSAT
- Diversity Information Panel
- The U.S. JD Application Process
- Financing a Legal Education in the U.S.
- And more!

To see the full list of workshops and learn more about the forums, visit LSAC.org/lawschoolforums.

DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION

LSAC believes that the legal profession should reflect the diversity of the world around us. That's why we make resources available to advocate for and promote broad-based diversity in legal education and the legal profession. We seek to increase opportunities for people from diverse backgrounds and ensure that the future of our justice system reflects all those it serves.

LSAC PRELAW UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARS (PLUS) PROGRAMS

LSAC's summer PLUS programs are open to everyone and specifically aimed at groups who are underrepresented in the legal profession. The PLUS programs immerse participants in the law school experience and introduce them to the skills important for law school success. Program participants will have the opportunity to take courses in legal skills, writing, legal research, and advocacy, and will be exposed to various career opportunities in the legal profession. For more information, visit LSAC.org.

LSAC CREDENTIAL ASSEMBLY SERVICESM

The Credential Assembly Service simplifies your law school application process. CAS streamlines law school admission by allowing all your transcripts and recommendations to be sent only once to LSAC. There, your application documents are summarized and combined with LSAT scores and writing samples, and the resulting law school report is sent to all law schools to which you apply. The schools' applications are also available at LSAC.org.

Once created, your CAS account remains active for five years and includes the following:

- Transcript summarization (as well as authentication and evaluation of academic records for internationally educated JD applicants, if applicable)
- Creation of your law school report (Note: You will need to purchase a law school report for each law school to which you're applying.)
- Letter(s) of recommendation processing
- Electronic application processing for all ABA-approved law schools and some non-ABA-approved schools

SCORE PREVIEW

LSAC offers a score preview option for first-time test takers who wish to see their LSAT score before deciding whether to keep it as part of their LSAC transcript and have it reported to law schools. Visit LSAC.org to find out more about Score Preview, including costs. First-time test takers who have an approved LSAT fee waiver can sign up for Score Preview free of charge.

FEE WAIVERS FOR THE LSAT AND CREDENTIAL ASSEMBLY SERVICE

Our fee waiver program is available for those who cannot afford to pay for the LSAT and CAS. This program is part of our mission to reduce barriers for determined law school applicants. More information about the fee waiver application process can be found on LSAC.org.
