Video Transcript

[Upbeat music.]

Type on screen: “[As a first-generation student] I enjoyed feeling like I was learning ... and actively preparing to go to law school.” – Law Hub Program Participant

[A quote from a LawHub program participant is displayed on a light blue background.]

Type on screen: Each student’s journey through law school is unique.

[Animated illustrations representing three different students appear.]

Type on screen: But one need unites them: the need to learn to think like a lawyer.

[The three students are now holding textbooks, briefcases, and papers.]

Type on screen: At LSAC, it’s our mission to help with this crucial step [Student holding textbooks walks across screen. LSAC logo slides into view.]

Type on screen: by developing specific academic skills to help students thrive.

[Student holding textbooks continues to walk across the screen and joins a group of students helping one another up a staircase. The student at the top of the stairs walks across the screen. The students join two other students outside of a building that represents a law school. They greet one another by waving.]

Type on screen: Our legal education solutions are designed to support students

[An illustration of a hand holding a smartphone displaying the LawHub logo.]

Type on screen: academically

[A female student raises her hand in class.]

Type on screen: socially

[A group of students converse at a table. One has a laptop; another has a stack of books. They are holding coffee cups and snacks.]

Type on screen: and culturally

[A student and professor sitting across from each other at a table, conversing in a classroom setting.]

Type on screen: from 0L through graduation

[A student in a cap and gown waves a diploma.]

Type on screen: so they can pursue their careers confidently, with a true sense of belonging.

[As the student waves the diploma, it becomes a briefcase and her cap and gown become a business suit. She walks off-screen.]

Type on screen: Taught by expert faculty from around the country,

[An illustration of the map of the United States appears. Circles showing various human figures to represent faculty members appear at different spots on the map.]

Type on screen: our programs feature highly interactive modules that foster engagement,

[A hand holds a tablet that displays content from a LawHub learning module. The screen text shows, "What is IRAC? IRAC is a core unit of logic for performing legal analysis." The screen displays four boxes with the letters I, R, A, and C and instructs the student to select each letter to display what IRAC stands for. The student's hand selects A.]

Type on screen: frequent formative assessments that nurture development,

[An illustration of a student working on a laptop. He is surrounded by graphics showing check marks and grades to indicate performance assessments.]

Type on screen: comprehensive modules that build necessary skills

[A hand holds a smartphone, which displays a menu of LawHub modules. The titles of the modules shown on the phone screen include Reading & Briefing Cases, Taking Notes Like a Pro, Socratic Dialogue, Legal Analysis, and Exam Strategy.]

Type on screen: and provide academic support —

[A female student sits on a seat inside a bus. She is wearing headphones and looking at and using a smartphone.]

Type on screen: anytime, anywhere.

[The illustration zooms out to show the outside of the bus as it drives away. It has a LawHub poster on the side of the bus, and the female student is visible on the bus.]

Type on screen: Plus, they'll receive high-quality content

[Illustration of hands holding a tablet, a smartphone, and a laptop, each displaying the LawHub logo.]

Type on screen: from a trusted leader in legal education — LSAC

Type on screen: which will enhance your school's academic success programming.
